

Yearly REPUBLICAN-1911
Daily PUBLIC LEDGER-1911

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, JULY 13, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

Those Feathers.

How pleasant it is in the trolley car riding behind some fair creature as sweet as a rose, To spend all the moments in dexterously dodging The plumes on her headgear that tickle one's nose. Oh, the sharp shiny feathers; the tall, skinny feathers; the broad fluffy feathers that tickle one's nose.

An electrical and hail storm did great damage in Lincoln County.

Paris, France.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Earnshaw and Miss Earnshaw of Columbus, have concluded a short visit to Paris and left for Evian-les-Bains.

Gov. McCreary appointed S. W. Hager, of Owensboro, Democrat, as a State Election Commissioner and named R. C. Stoll, of Lexington, Republican, as successor of R. P. Ernst, resigned.

Ewing, Ky., July 11.—Lightning killed fourteen fine sheep, a hen and fifteen chicks for Robert Harper at Cowan.

CHAMPION GIRL SWIMMER

Miss Anna Bell Ward Sunday Morning Swam From Beechwood Park to the West End Loop, Three Miles.

Miss Anna Bell Ward, owner of the Pastime theater, is not only some singer but she's some swimmer. Yesterday morning she went down to the river back of her home for her usual swim. The morning was fine and Miss Anna started down the river. After she had gone a considerable distance she felt inclined to go farther, she reached the ice piers and felt the thrill of being champion swimmer. She proceeded to the lower loop of the street railway, having covered a distance of over three miles. The fair swimmer was as fresh as a daisy when she came from the water, but, how fatigued her escorts, Myron Merz and her brother Nelson were, the deponents sayeth not.

A few days ago, however, Eugene McNamara and Myron Merz swam from Maysville to Ripley, a distance of 9 miles.

BUILD YOUR HOUSE NOW!

If you are contemplating building a home or a house for an investment, now is the time to place your order. We have the largest stock of all kinds of building material that can be found in Northeastern Kentucky and have large contracts with the timber men for still greater supply. We contracted this large supply at a price very near cost of production and we are in position to give you the advantage of this good purchase. Place your order now or let us give you an estimate on your requirements; you will then leave your order with Maysville's Foremost Lumber Yard.

The Mason Lumber Co., Inc.
Cor. Second and Limestone Sts. Phone 519. MAYSVILLE, KY.
A. A. McLAUGHLIN. L. N. BRYAN.

CLOSING OUT
EDISON HORN TYPE PHONOGRAPHS

$21 Grade with 12 Records for $15.
$28 Grade with 12 Records for $22.
Many other styles. See show window display.

J. T. KACKLEY & CO.

The Ladies' of the Second M. E. Church South will give an ice cream social Wednesday evening at their church. You are cordially invited to come.

A PROMINENT FARMER OF LEWISBURG DIED YESTERDAY.

Mr. Edward Marshall, aged 84, one of Maysville's oldest and most respected citizens passed away at his home last night about 1 o'clock from senility. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Marinella Emporium is now open in room 28 First National Bank Building.

Mr. Edward Daley, the barber has gone to Cincinnati to work at his profession.

WILL PICNIC AT BEECHWOOD.

The Sunday School of the First M. E. Church, South, of this city will give a picnic Wednesday at Beechwood Park.

The Home Department of the Sunday School is cordially invited. Will leave the church at 9 a. m. Bring lunch.

WALL PAPER!

Now is the time to do your wall papering and painting. Come in. We can show you just what you need. We have a full line of Wall Papers, Paints, Enamels, Etc. See our line before buying.

CRANE & SHAFER,
PHONE 452. COX BUILDING.

Wall paper, rugs and paint at HENDRICKSON'S.

Miss Emma Hunt, the health nurse formerly of this city, is said to be suffering from an injury to one of her eyes and is taking treatment at Frankfort.

Mr. Thomas Jefferson and family of Portsmouth, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cole on West Second street leave for home tomorrow. Thomas is one of the fire laddies of the Peerless City.

BEAUTIFULLY SOLEMNIZED

Amid Colonial Settings Were the Toppings of Miss Harriett Frances Cochran and Mr. Thomas Arrington Duke Saturday Evening.

The marriage of Miss Harriett Frances Cochran and Mr. Thomas Arrington Duke, was solemnized at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. No where is there to be found a finer example of the architecture of an early day, than the home of the bride, where the young people plighted their solemn vows.

This home was built by Mr. Andrew M. January, one of Maysville's foremost citizens of the long ago, who was the great grandfather of Miss Cochran. The bride has been a leader among the young people of her set ever since her coming out, after being most carefully educated in the East and on the other side of the water.

Mr. Duke is a scion of the prominent Southern family, whose name he bears and possesses qualities of mind and heart that have given him a place both in social and business circles rarely attained by one of his years.

Before the colonial fire-place in the library, banked with ferns and palms, the green relieved by stately lilies the prie dieu was placed where Dr. John Barbour, the pastor of the family, pronounced the words that made the twain, one, with an impressiveness born of affectionate life-long interest in the bride. Dilect notes from the harp and violin in the wedding march floated in from the hall during the ceremony.

The bride had no attendants. A cherished wish of the high contracting parties was to be married with only their kinsfolk and a few close friends witnessing the ceremony.

The bride who wore well her beautiful lace gown, and rare old diamond necklace, a gift from her parents, was given away by her father, Judge A. J. Cochran. Never rested a benediction on lovelier bride or more manly groom.

A small reception, perfect in its elegance followed the ceremony. The cutting of the cake caused much merriment as the numerous symbolic favors were drawn by the privileged few fortunate enough to be present. After brief congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Duke disappeared to resper in traveling garb, their destination, at 2:15, the seashore of the Carolinas.

DEATH OF LUCIEN M. GOODMAN.

Mr. Lucien M. Goodman, a prominent farmer of the Mt. Gilead neighborhood, passed away at the Goodman homestead where he was born, yesterday about 9 o'clock.

Mr. Goodman was 58 years old at the time of his death, which was caused by diabetes.

He is survived by five brothers and one sister. The brothers are John M. Goodman, Shelbyville; Jesse Goodman, Louisville; W. C. Goodman, Portsmouth; W. P. Goodman, Mt. Gilead, and B. W. Goodman, of this city. The only sister surviving is Mrs. Nannie Dobyns of Mt. Gilead, two other sisters, Mrs. John Foxworthy of Flemingsburg and Mrs. Dr. McElwee of St. Louis, having passed away earlier.

Funeral today at 4 o'clock at Flemingsburg.

OUR LINE OF HOME GROWN VEGETABLES

is fresh every day.
Call and see our line or phone us. We carry a good selection of the best.

DINGER BROS., Leading Retailers
107 W. Second St.

CAR SHORTAGE LINDLES.

According to the report of the American Railway Association as of July 1 last, the total surplus was 220,875 cars against 222,994 on June 15. The last total shortage was 1,333 and net surplus 218,542 cars.

The total shortage June 15 was 600 cars.

Dennis Coughlin was taken suddenly sick Saturday afternoon at Johnson's Station, and is in a critical condition at his home at Fairview.

Rev. J. W. Simpson will preach in the Police Court room Monday night. Mr. Simpson is a talented man and an entertaining speaker. The audience will get a good sermon.

LILLIAN RUSSELL

says that it's a crime for a woman to grow old and haggard looking.

A. D. S. PEROXIDE CREAM

will stop you from committing a crime. Nuff Sed.

NOTICE!

We are agents for the Moel Laundry and would like for you to give us your laundry.

M. F. WILLIAMS & CO. THE THIRD STREET DRUGSTORE.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

Maysville's Best Clothing and Shoe Store.

GOOD NEWS!

After a lot of wiring and mail correspondence we are fortunate to be again able to offer to speedy customers a line of Palm Beach Suits. Many of them differ in pattern from former stock and are exceedingly attractive. If you want one or more come soon; they won't last long.

Our Pants Sale is now on, and at the rate they are selling, will soon be off.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

PAY YOUR ACCOUNT AND GET TICKETS ON THE AUTOMOBILE

INCREASE IN RAIL ORDERS.

Total contracts booked by the rail mills during the first half of this year have been approximately 93,000 tons, which is 28 per cent larger than during the first half of 1913.

PENNSY'S IMMENSE ELEVATOR.

The Pennsylvania Railroad put in operation its new grain elevator at Circleville, Ohio, that has a capacity of 1,100,000 bushels, and that was built at a cost of $1,200,000.

Mrs. H. T. Ennis and little daughter Anna Elsie, came up from Cincinnati Saturday evening to spend a few weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. George Schatzmann of Lexington street, a sister, Mrs. G. C. Browning of Fort avenue.

John Deere's Self-Dump Sulky Rake

The First Consideration Has Been Simplicity and Durability!

DURABLE

Axle studs are 1 1/4 inches in diameter, and are reversible and interchangeable, which doubles their life.

Dump rods are of high carbon steel, 3/4 of an inch in diameter. They have four times the durability of the ordinary dump rod as they are reversible individually, interchangeable and again reversible.

SIMPLICITY

We can rightfully boast that our rake has fewer parts than any rake on the market. Simplicity of construction and proper material systematically and symmetrically distributed, mean much to users

MIKE BROWN,

THE SQUARE DEAL MAN.

Mr. J. Ed Parker of this city is in Louisville attending a directors' meeting of the Live Stock Insurance Company.

W. C. T. U. MEETS THIS EVENING.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet with Mrs. Power, corner Third and Plum streets this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

CHARLES F. WRIGHT

Popular Young Maysville Bank Clerk Will Wed Miss Woodward at Lexington Tomorrow.

The following wedding invitation has been issued:
Mrs. Mary L. Woodward announces the marriage of her daughter
Bertha Mae to Charles Foster Wright on Tuesday, the fourteenth of July nineteen hundred and fourteen Lexington, Ky.

At home, Maysville, Ky., after July 28. The groom is a popular young man of this city and is a son of Mrs. Sarah T. Wright and a clerk in the Bank of Maysville National Banking Association.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. John Barbour, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city in the Phoenix hotel parlors Tuesday noon. Dr. Barbour will then go on to Birmingham, Ala., where he will officiate at the wedding of his son, Mr. Phillips Barbour.

BEECHNUT PEANUT BUTTER

IS THE CLEANEST AND MOST WHOLE-SOME MADE. WE CARRY IT IN 10c, 15c AND 25c SIZES.

Phone 43.

GEISEL & CONRAD

SILK at Cotton Prices!

Plenty of pretty patterns. Every color and many shades of each color represented. It takes so little material to make a dress now and such a small sum to buy the goods here, it is easy to include not one but many silk gowns in your wardrobe. We have some pretty trimmings at special prices also to further economize the making of your silk frocks.

Until you visit our Silk section you won't believe how little it will cost you to have a new Silk frock and the wherewith to trim it.

Why not come in today.

Even Motorists That Take No Dust Have Use For DUST COATS

No matter what your horsepower you will have to "take somebody's dust" on the country roads, so dust coats are as necessary as they ever were. The new Coats are in. Most of them are designed to keep the user clean, rather than provide warmth, but many are heavy enough for cool evenings. Linen, cotton, mohair and poplin are the favorite materials and prices start at $1.50 and go to $6.50—the last for an all-linen Coat of high grade tailoring.

1852

HUNT'S

1914

REMOVAL NOTICE.

R. & W. Rasp have moved their shop from Market street to the corner of Second and Wall streets, and will be pleased to have their customers call.

Deputy Sheriff Mike Brown, with the Fleming county blood hounds, went to the scene of the burning of the Woodward barn near Sardis Saturday and made an unsuccessful effort to run down the incendiaries.

MISSOURI EXPRESS CHARGES CUT

Jefferson City, Mo.—An order reducing express rates in Missouri 21 per cent was issued by the Missouri Public Service corporation.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Whitaker had two cases before his honor Saturday.
F. R. Hedges, loitering$6.50
Phelan Holland, plain drunk.....$6.50

"The Castle"

That's the name of the new bronze oxford that we are selling at $4 50.
It's a genuine beauty with side buckles and so soft and comfortable.

300 pairs of oxfords at $1 pair, worth up to $3 50. Sizes 2 1/2 to 4 1/2.

Ladies' Vests 10c to $1.

Mens' Union Suits 45c to $1.

Ladies' Flowered Crepe Gowns

Low neck and short sleeves, 75c. Worth $1.

Awning Stripe Voiles

19c Yard

Three different stripes in black and New York is awning stripe mad at this time.

Black or White

We are selling the best 50c silk hose on the market. We have customers who tell us that they wear better than the $1 grade.

Melba Talcum Powder

The purest and sweetest talcum that is made. 25c.

Melba Toilet Water

Refreshing in several sweet odors. 75c.

Bathing Suits for Ladies $1 98.

Bathing Caps 50c

MERZ BROS

THE PUBLIC LEDGER
 DAILY—SUNDAY, FOURTH OF JULY, THANKSGIVING
 AND CHRISTMAS.
A. F. CURRAN, - - - - Editor and Publisher.
 Local and Long Distance Telephone No. 40. OFFICE—PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING, MAYSVILLE, KY.
 Entered at the Maysville, Ky., Postoffice as second-class mail matter SUBSCRIPTIONS—BY MAIL.
 One Year, $2.00
 Six Months, $1.00
 Three Months, .50
 DELIVERED BY CARRIER,
 Per Month, 15 Cents
 Payable to Collector at end of Month.
ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS CASH IN ADVANCE.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.
 Congressmen.
 First District—Edwin Farley, Paducah.
 Second District—Alvin H. Clark, Hopkinsville.
 Third District—J. Frank Taylor, Glasgow.
 Fourth District—W. Sherman Ball, Hardinsburg, Z. T. Proctor, Leitchfield; Lindsay Morrison, West Point.
 Fifth District—Roy Wilhoit, Louisville.
 Seventh District—Lucien Beckner, Winchester; L. L. Bristow, Georgetown.
 Eighth District—James P. Spillman, Harrodsburg.
 Ninth District—H. Glenn Ireland, Olive Hill.
 Tenth District—Congressman John W. Langley, Pikeville.
 Eleventh District—Congressman Caleb Powers, Barbourville; State Senator J. F. Bosworth, Middlesboro.
U. S. Senators.
 (Long Term)
 Col. Richard P. Ernst, Covington.
 A. E. Wilson, Louisville.
 Latt F. McLaughlin, Madisonville.
 (Short Term)
 W. Marshall Bullitt, Louisville.

One idle factory damages the Wilson party more than 1,000 political speeches of the opposition.

Perhaps war with Mexico would give some of those who have been thrown out of employment by the Democratic tariff legislation a chance to get a new job, and a great many of them would welcome it.—Philadelphia Press.

The New York Sun wants the first article of the constitution to read: "All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and the American Federation of Labor." The Boston Herald asks: "Why the Senate?"

At one time this country imported $30,000,000 worth of tin plate in one year. Under a protective tariff consumption enormously increased while imports fell to less than $300,000,000 worth, with a 99 per cent. drawback on that quantity as it was re-exported. In the meantime exports began and mounted to $6,269,324 in 1912. Prices were never low before tin plates were produced in this country as since that time. But the Democrats applied their tariff theories with the result that the tin plate exports quadrupled in six months, exports declined a-half, many men are out of employment and tin plates are no cheaper to consumers.

I was lowly, Washington correspondent of New York Evening Post, in an article in Harper's Weekly, now the President's foremost champion, says that the Secretary of State has not made himself popular at Washington. No public man for many years occupying high, important and respectable place in an administration has been so led. The town is flushed with stories of his blunders and of blunders and "breaks" made in course, official and social, with the diplomatic. Most of these stories Mr. Lowry claims are serious and incredible on the face of them, they are eagerly caught up and repeated and, most part, believed.

We believe in the Republican principle of Protection to American workingmen, American industries and the American farmer.

Just when a thoughtful man settles comfortably back in his chair with the feeling that the world is growing better every blessed minute, he picks up the paper and sees that there was an unusually large crowd of fashionably dressed women at some unusually dirty divorce trial.—Ohio State Journal.

Modern industrialism, with its extension of factory life, has had an important influence on health. Life indoors often accompanied by insufficient ventilation, tends to lower the resisting power of the body. It is favorable to the spread of infectious like tuberculosis and often, when women work in factories, the consequence is a breaking up of home life that has unfavorable physical as well as moral results.

Theodore Roosevelt, according to his newspaper friends wants Oscar Straus to become United States Senator from New York to succeed Senator Root. Probably that is correct, as Mr. Straus went all the way to Madrid to attend the wedding of Mr. Roosevelt's son to Miss Willard. But do the Republicans want Mr. Straus, a life-long importer and Free Trader, who has never uttered a word in favor of protection, but many thousands of words against it? We think not, and we do not believe the New York Republicans will ever send him to the Senate.

The Michigan Manufacturer gives a list of twelve beet sugar refineries which have gone out of operation since the new tariff went into effect. Many sugar planters in Louisiana have gone out of business. It is now said that the Administration, facing a treasury deficit, and alarmed over the threatened destruction of the cane and beet sugar industries, may attempt to reverse its free sugar policy and impose a duty of one cent a pound on sugar. The old tariff duty on sugar ran from $1.65 to $1.95 per 100 pounds. From this duty the government derived a revenue annually of about $50,000,000.

"BUSINESS BE DAMNED."
 Not "the public be damned," but "Business be damned" is the slogan of the practical "New Freedom," and if there is anything more than rust left when the Administration gets through it will be because obstinacy got tangled up and ham-strung in the wreckage.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

EVEN THE SOUTH PROTESTS.
 We used to hear much about Liverpool markets, and how they fixed the price of grain in our own markets. All that is true under Free-Trade, and it is equally true that the price of our corn is now governed by the price of corn in Argentina, South America. We have come to that; it is the modern "A. B. C. Arbitration" which comes close to farmers. Even in the South, the farmers are complaining of the Tariff's effect upon their products. The Texas Stockman and Farmer says:
 "The fact is that the new Tariff is playing havoc with the producers of the South."—Northwestern Agriculturist.

APPOINTMENT.
 The architect approached the owner of the new hotel, "Everything is finished except the kitchen and the tango room," he reported, "and there is just $18,107 left to spend, on them."
 "Go ahead and do the best you can with the money," said the owner. "If necessary, spend all of $107 on the kitchen."—Washington Herald.

ALTITUDE RECORD BROKEN
 Johannisthal, Germany.—A world's altitude record for an aeroplane carrying only the aviator was made here by Otto Linnekogel, who attained a height of 6,000 meters, or approximately 21,654 feet, in his monoplane.

SUCCESS OF A MEDICINE
 All things succeed which fill a real need; that a doctor is kept busy day and night proves his ability and skill; that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sold in enormous quantities in almost every city, town and hamlet in America and in foreign countries as well proves its merit, and women are found everywhere who tell of health restored by its use.

BEATIFUL GALVESTON
 Maysville Girl Tells of the Delight of Surf Bathing and the Many Other Charms of the "Oleander City."

Houston, Texas, July 6, 1914.

Dear —:
 I am going to write you this time, as I have Galveston fever bad and I want you to come here right away quick. You would enjoy anything any more I am sure.

We left here yesterday morning about 6 o'clock and reached Galveston about 10:30. There wasn't much to see on the way down there, a few orange groves and some fig orchards and of course miles and miles of level country. I don't believe I will ever forget my first glimpse of the water though. The causeway is certainly a wonderful thing. It is two and a half miles long and is made of concrete. This crosses the bay and on one side as far as you can see there is nothing but water and sky. After you cross this you are still two miles from Galveston. They have a very nice depot and there were certainly lots of people. I used to think there was a crowd at the Grand Central in Cincinnati, but that isn't a handful compared to the crowds at Galveston. After we got off the train we went down to the docks and much to my disappointment there were no large ships in so we started out to the beach. It certainly is a pretty place. All along the streets they have great palms growing and oleanders. It is called the oleander city and the name certainly suits it. It was just about noon when we got out to the beach and of course I have never seen any thing like the Gulf of Mexico. Of course the water looked muddy near the shore but several miles out it was the most beautiful blue I ever saw. You could hardly tell which was water and which was the sky. Then there were hundreds of seagulls and they are so pretty and white and look beautiful flying around. There were lots of people in bathing but it was so sunny then that we decided to wait awhile. We had our dinner and then spent a couple of hours watching the people. I had about decided to watch the other people and not go in as the waves looked pretty large, but we went in a little after four and then we were living sure enough. I never expected to go beyond the first rope but before I knew it I was out with the rest of the crowd. The water certainly is salty. I think I swallowed several gallons but I didn't mind that one bit. When you first go in, the water makes your eyes burn like everything but you soon get used to that. The water is so heavy it holds you up with out the least trouble and when the large waves come you just have to jump them. We didn't scream at all. I think Charles was surprised at Virginia especially. We stayed in more than 2 hours but it didn't hurt us any. About six o'clock the men took us out to ride the breakers and that was the most fun of all. They just toss you over the waves. There were about two thousand people in the water when we were and you never saw such happy people in all your life. Everybody around you talked and laughed like they had known you all their lives. The men had lots of fun playing ball in the water. They had a large ball like a balloon and they would throw it and just when one of the men would think he had it a big wave would take it away off. I got some shells out of the water and behold when I looked at them they had live crabs in them. I held on to them though as they were not large enough to hurt you. Two of them died last night and the other one died this morning so I took them out of the shells and of course will keep the shells to bring home. I am a little sun-burned but not very bad. I guess it will wear off in a day or so. We had supper and then we walked along the sea wall. They certainly do turn out and they have a band concert and there must have been several thousand, I guess eight or ten thousand people out to hear the music. We walked over to the Galvez Hotel, a one million dollar hotel that was just opened last season and there on the grass was the largest fish I ever saw. It was called a June fish and weighed one hundred pounds. It had been caught on the pier I think and it was attracting a little attention. They caught one last summer that weighed 2,500 lbs., but I think that is like the fish story read about. Galveston is called the Atlantic City of the South and they claim to have the finest surf bathing in the world. It was moonlight and the water looked beautiful. I am sorry to have to write about Galveston because I can't do it justice. One would have to see it and bathe in the gulf to appreciate it. You must come sometime if you don't come this summer, I hope I will get to go again before I come home but I am afraid I won't.

COUGHLIN & CO.
 Livery, Feed and Sales Stable
 Undertakers, Automobiles for Hire.
 Embalmers. Phone 31.

CORN BEANS
 We have a good supply of CUT SHORT, LAZY WIFE and HORTICULTURAL. All good ones. 15c a pint.
C. P. DIETERICH & BRO.
 PHONES 151 and 152.

Dr. P. G. SMOOT
 ...General... Practitioner
 Second Floor Masonic Temple, Third and Market Streets, Maysville, Ky.
 Special Attention to Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat.
 Residence, 194 E. Third St. Telephone office 51, residence 5. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 4 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m. Sundays by appointment only.

Dr. TAULBEE
SURGEON
 Special Attention Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
 Suite 14
 First National Bank Building.

Having Decided to Retire From Business, I Offer My Stock at Reduced Prices

BOTTLED IN BOND WHISKIES.
 Old Taylor, full quart. $.95
 Belle of Nelson, full quart.90
 Lancaster, full quart.85
 Mailwood, full quart.83
 Old Sam White, full quart.79
 Old 56, full quart, 8 years old.87
 Sam Clay, full quart.83
 Old Time, full quart.84
 Queen of Nelson, full quart.87
 Van Hook, full quart.94
NOT BONDED.
 Duffy's Malt Whisky, per bottle .90
 3 Star Hennessy Brand per bot. $1.80
 Rock-Rye, per quart.75
WINES.
 Port, per bottle35
 Sherry, per bottle40
 Laret, per bottle.40
 Puritan Belle, per bottle.50
 Mumm's Extra Dry, per pint.1.00
 Cocks Imperial, per pint85
WHISKIES IN THE WOOD.
 $4.00 Whisky, 8 yrs. old, per gal. $3.50
 $3.00 Whisky, 4 yrs. old, per gal. .200
 $4.00 Brandies, per gallon. .350
 $5.00 Brandies, per gallon. .250
 Mail orders promptly shipped.

Geo. M. Diener
 208 Market St. Maysville, Ky.

Dr. P. G. SMOOT
 ...General... Practitioner
 Second Floor Masonic Temple, Third and Market Streets, Maysville, Ky.
 Special Attention to Diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat.
 Residence, 194 E. Third St. Telephone office 51, residence 5. Office hours, 10 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 4 p. m.; 7 to 9 p. m. Sundays by appointment only.

COUGHLIN & CO.
 Livery, Feed and Sales Stable
 Undertakers, Automobiles for Hire.
 Embalmers. Phone 31.

CORN BEANS
 We have a good supply of CUT SHORT, LAZY WIFE and HORTICULTURAL. All good ones. 15c a pint.
C. P. DIETERICH & BRO.
 PHONES 151 and 152.

Dr. TAULBEE
SURGEON
 Special Attention Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
 Suite 14
 First National Bank Building.

Go to the New York Saturday, the 11th, and Get Some of the

Bargains Offered

11 GREAT SPECIALS. VALUES THAT CANNOT BE DUPLICATED ELSEWHERE

Special No. 1—Best quality Ladies' 10c best (Sta-up) 7 1/2c.
 Special No. 2—Ladies' Muslin under skirts $1.25 values 69c.
 Special No. 3—Ladies' 10c and 15c Handkerchiefs 5c each.
 Special No. 4—Ladies' fine Dress Skirts $4 and $5 values $2.49.
 Special No. 5—Ladies' elegant Auto Coats (Samples) 75c.
 Special No. 6—2 Gowns and Princess Slips 98c too many on hand must be sold.
 Special No. 7—Ladies' Sample Waist, better than ever 50c.
 Special No. 8—Ladies' House Dresses and Street dresses $1.25 values 69c.
 Special No. 9—Ladies' Ratine Skirts 85c.
 Special No. 10—New Crepes, just in 15c, 19c, and 25c great values for the money.
 Special No. 11—Ladies' Panama Hats 98c. Children's 75c and 50c hats 25c.

NEW YORK STORE S. STRAUS, Proprietor
 PHONE 571

CAMPERS!

This Is For You!!

Cots, Camp Chairs, Swings, Canvas Lounging Chairs, Hammock Swings and the Telescope Cot Bed that fills a long felt demand for a real comfortable bed that is portable. : : : :

McILVAIN, HUMPHREYS & KNOX,
 Funeral Directors and Embalmers.
 Furniture Dealers.
 207 Sutton Street. Phone 250. Maysville, Ky.

APPEAL
 Desiring to close up the present business as soon as possible, we must insist that all those indebted to the firm to call and settle. Any one having accounts against us will present same for settlement.

RAINS BROS. PHONE 191

FOR SALE!
 We have for sale the home of Mrs. H. C. Smith on East Fifth street. This is a two-story seven-room house in good repair, with water and gas in the house. There are two lots that go with the house. These lots run from Fifth back to Sixth street. We do not hesitate to say that this is a very cheap place at the price asked for it, and if you are looking for a medium priced home we don't think this one can be duplicated in our city at the price asked—$1,850.00.

Thos. L. Ewan & Co.
 REAL ESTATE LOAN AGENTS
 FARMERS and TRADERS' BANK. MAYSVILLE, KY.

Graduation
 — AND — Wedding Presents!
 Our stock consists of the most elaborate assortment of exquisite articles. Your inspection is solicited. : : : :
CHAS. W. TRAXEL & CO.
 PHONE 395.

$15 FOR THIS GENUINE Victor-Victrola
PAY CASH FOR YOUR RECORDS and $1 per week on the Victrola and we will place this machine in your home. It has concealed sounding board, modifying doors, tapering tone arm and exhibition sound box.
NEW LINE OF VICTROLAS
$15, $25, 40, $50, $75, $100, $200
MURPHY'S Jewelry Store.

All of Our Wheat has passed rigid inspection before it is scoured, brushed, washed and milled in our sanitary modern mills.
THAT'S WHY
GOLD MEDAL FLOUR gives such good satisfaction. The DEMAND for GOLD MEDAL FLOUR is constantly increasing. BUY A SACK FROM YOUR GROCER Eventually Gold Medal Flour
 Why Not Now?
M. C. RUSSELL CO., Distributors.

CALLS EXTRA SESSION.
 Columbus, Ohio, July 10.—Governor Cox this morning issued a call for a special session of the Legislature, to be held July 20, for the purpose of lowering the tax rate of the State.
CRACKING DOWN ON FREE TRANSPORTATION.
 Liberal distribution of free railroad passes to Federal and State officials, Judges, newspaper men and others, by the Louisville & Nashville and Nashville Chattanooga & St. Louis railroads was reported to the Senate by the Interstate Commerce Commission. More than 34,000 passes, valued at above $340,000, were shown to have been issued last year, according to the report.

TUBERCULOSIS SITUATION DEPICTED IN FILMS.
 Frankfort.—The moving picture exhibit of the State Tuberculosis Commission, showing two phases of the tuberculosis situation in dramatized form (the Price of Human Lives and Hope) were shown for the first time on the grounds of the old State Capitol. After touring Franklin County by automobile the show will be taken through ten counties of Central Kentucky this summer.

NEW LAW ON BALLOTS.
 One of the provisions of the new election law is that all ballots unused in any election instead of being burned as formerly, must be marked by the election officers with a stamp of a certain size and returned to county clerk with the stub of the ballot book. Each ballot that remains after an election must be marked with the word "unused." While this will require a little more work on the part of the officers than under the old way, it will prevent a great deal of crookedness in elections.

Be Here Tomorrow
 See the wonderful values that have created such lively selling the past few weeks. You will be astonished.

Ladies Mary Jane Pumps made on fashions newest lines. In black patent leather and white canvas. Worth $2.50 Our Price—$1.69.

Ladies new creations, Colonial Pumps and two strap Oxfords. Genuine hand-turn soles. Worth $3.00. Our Price—$1.99.

Ladies soft kid and velvet strap oxfords. Flexible soles. Now at 99 cts.

Misses and Childrens Patent Baby Doll Pumps and two straps. Now at—$1.24.

Great Price Reductions in Every Department Tomorrow

DAN COHEN INC

GEM TODAY!

PERFORMANCES START DAILY AT 1 P. M.

I cannot sing the old songs,
But that don't hurt my chances
For social prestige, since I'm great
At all the modern dances.

CLARK PRAISES CHAUTAUQUA.

Hon. Champ Clark, speaker of the national House of Representatives: "A great many newspapers still shoot their shafts at chautauqua lecturers. They think it the height of sarcasm to refer to a public man as a chautauqua. There is one great virtue in chautauqua money. It is clean money. You don't have to explain where you got it. If a man does not desire to go to a lecture there is no law to compel him to do so. I defend the chautauqua lecturers with whom I have been associated, because they constitute as fine a group of men and women as can be found among the splendid citizenship of America."

TEACHER

Has Great Place In World, But Gains No Wealth, Says Swain.

St. Paul.—"Given a cultivated, trained teacher of sound mind and body who goes to work at peace with God and man, the schools will be the best place in the world for the growth of the child in practical righteousness and American citizenship," said Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore College, and president of the National Education Association, at the first general session of the association's annual convention here.

The session was devoted principally to a discussion of the teacher's relation to American citizenship. President Swain declared that anyone taking teaching as a life work must abandon all idea of accumulating wealth. He made a plea for a "living wage" for the teacher, said the best person for a position should be chosen regardless of such, and advocated an old age pension system to be provided by the State.

When a man starts on a vacation he goes into a hat store and comes out wearing a cap that looks like a Persian Prayer Rug.

An Illinois farmer was killed by a Sheriff's posse after he had barricaded himself in an effort to resist the seizure of some land sold by court order.

FOREST FIRES

Reported To Be Raging in Kentucky Mountains—Drought Damaging.

Lexington.—The worst drought Kentucky has known in many years prevails all over the State. There has been no rain of consequence for three months. Crops of all kinds are greatly damaged and forest fires are raging in the mountains.

In the lowlands water is so scarce that scores of farmers are hauling the fluid for miles for their stock to drink. In Hopkinsville every minister in the city called his congregation to a union mass meeting Tuesday at which prayers were sent up for rain.

2,868,000,000

BUSHEL OF CORN

More Than 400,000,000 Bushels More Than In 1913.

Washington.—The first idea of the size of this year's corn crop was given out by the Department of Agriculture's July report. It places the total estimated production at 2,868,000,000 bushels, as compared with 2,468,988,000 bushels in 1913 and an average for the last five years of 2,450,000,000 bushels. The total estimated production of other crops follows:

| | |
|-------------------------------|---------------|
| Winter wheat, bushels.... | 655,000,000 |
| Spring wheat, bushels.... | 275,000,000 |
| Total wheat crop, bushels.... | 930,000,000 |
| Corn, bushels..... | 2,868,000,000 |
| Oats, bushels..... | 1,201,000,000 |
| Barley, bushels..... | 211,000,000 |
| White potatoes, bushels.... | 356,000,000 |
| Sweet potatoes, bushels.... | 50,000,000 |
| Rice, bushels..... | 18,000,000 |
| Flax, bushels..... | 23,000,000 |
| Tobacco, pounds..... | 733,000,000 |

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN IN "ASHES OF HOPE"
Special Two-Reel Essanay Feature.
"MAKING HIM OVER FOR MINNIE"
Essanay Comedy.

MARY FULLER IN THE SIXTH STORY OF "DOLLY OF THE DAILIES" Series.
Bullet's Orchestra Afternoon and Night.
COMING FRIDAY—"A MILLION BIDS."

An honest confession often is equivalent to a term in the penitentiary.

The scope and aim of the Irish National Volunteer movement was explained by Michael J. Ryan, president of the United Irish League of America.

The protest of the Seneca Indians against further diversion of the Niagara River is soon to be heard by the House. The Indians claim infraction of their treaty rights.

Suit to recover over a million shares of International Petroleum Company stock, said to have been obtained by John Hays Hammond through fraud, has been filed in New York.

In spite of police orders anarchists and I. W. W. members decided to parade New York City Saturday with the ashes of the persons killed in the Harlem tenement bomb explosion.

Crops in the United States July 1 were 1.4 per cent. more advanced than the average for the past ten years, according to a bulletin issued yesterday by the Department of Agriculture.

Dr. David Starr Jordan was elected president of the National Educational Association at St. Paul. A resolution endorsing woman suffrage was adopted over the protest of the Southern delegates.

Reports from nearly all sections indicate that all staple crops are suffering from the long-continued drought. Stock water is becoming alarmingly scarce.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS
A successful man is one who can accomplish one tenth of the things he intended to do in a single day.

WE ARE PAYING
$5,000,000 A MONTH MORE
For Food Products from Other Countries Than We Paid Under a Protective Tariff.

People of the United States are paying $5,000,000 a month more for foods produced in other countries than ever before. That is the simple import price. Nobody knows how much more the people are paying at retail, but the President admits that they are psychologically paying as high prices for foods as before he saved them from the American monopolies by means of the Tariff.

THE INCREASE OF FOODSTUFF IMPORTATIONS in the first six months of the Democratic Free-Trade was $30,000,000 as compared with the same period of the last year.

The Democratic Department of Commerce at Washington reports that, and it must be true. It means that this country is buying more from the outside to eat, more by $5,000,000 a month, and therefore losing the profit on the production of that much eating material. Who loses? The people who work and earn wages in this country when that work is not done in other countries. The importers do not lose. They make a profit, and a larger profit than the handlers of American food products do. And in the same time the exports of American food materials dropped 50 per cent. Half the business has been killed in six months by the Democratic Free-Trade. That is the same Free-Trade which the President said was to please other countries so much that the people in this country would buy more American products and thus make this the big selling country of the world.

The President has failed as a prophet in less than six months, and is still going down. None of the hustlers for foreign markets bring back reports guessed right. When the goods are made that they have found that the President and sold here to be distributed all over the old world and the far East and other sections there is a balance continually due us in cash, and the gold comes over here to pay that balance. When we buy abroad we owe the producers over there money, and the gold is taken across the ocean to them to balance up that bill end of the business. We as a great democratic-loving nation are sending our gold over to the Europeans and paying them for food materials. They are getting rich and we are getting poor. Shall the people charge that up against the Democratic administration just as the people of Mexico charge their distress to the government of Huerta? Hardly, because we all know the Democrats will not pay, and besides the majority is said to believe that the Democrats are our great friends, and not like the Huertistas at all.

An ounce of indignation often accomplishes more than a ton of argument.

An epidemic of smallpox has its compensations. For the time being it prevents those within its field of endeavor from worrying about hydrophobia.

The Cincinnati police have been unable to solve the mystery of the death of a nonunion carpenter found dead in a subcellar. A carpenters' strike has been in progress for some time.

DIES HARD.

(From The Preston News.)
That Bubonic Plague now raging in Louisiana is nothing compared with the Bourbonic Drouth that now infests West Virginia.

JIM ALLEN TETTES.

(Cynthiana Democrat.)
When the Carlisle newspaper correspondents run out of copy they organize a raid on Henryville.

Unless it rains pretty soon the farmers will have to quit buying automobiles and learn how to walk again.

If it does not rain within a week the Presbyterians should arrange for an entertainment. That always brings a downpour.

Something to worry about: Huerta was re-elected president of Mexico, Sunday, nobody being allowed to vote except those favorable to him.

The trouble about "making hay while the sun shines" is, if the sun shines like it has been shining for the past six weeks there won't be any hay.

An Arkansas man trying to enlist for service in Mexico was rejected on account of defective teeth. "Good gracious, man," he exclaimed to the recruiting officer, "do you want me to eat 'em after I kill 'em?"

SECOND POTATO CROP
To Be Planted To Make Up For Drouth Losses In Kentucky.

Dover, Ky.—The potato crop through out central Kentucky was cut short by the May and June drouths. In some sections a half crop will be made, while in some districts the crop is almost a total failure. Farmers who never planted second crop seed can do so any time during the month of July. Second crop seed with anything like a favorable season will make a yield of tubers that will be surprising.

WOMAN CATCHES WEASEL
Raiding Chickens With Her Hands—Kills It With a Hammer.

Wilmington, Ohio.—Finding a weasel raiding her chicken flock, Mrs. Corwin Haines became so determined to stop its depredations that she made a dash for it, caught it by the throat and held it until a hammer was brought her when she crushed its skull. Mrs. Haines resides in Chester township and her act will be testified as being remarkable by anyone who has had experience with these wiry and evasive little animals.

BOY'S CLOTHING BURNED
Filed Them Upon a Lighted Cigarette When He Went In Bathing.

New Richmond, Ohio.—One member of a party of boys bathing in the Ohio River found himself in a predicament one day last week, which has taught the entire party a lesson. This youth went across the river with his companions to bathe. Smoking a cigarette, he threw the butt on the ground, then disrobing piled his clothing upon it. He had been in the water a short time when he was attracted to a fire on the bank, to find that his clothing was burning. He hastened to the spot to find them aflame, and they were entirely burned. Finding himself without clothing his predicament was pitiful, until he was relieved.

MAY PROVE FATAL
When Will Maysville People Learn the Importance of It?

Backache is only a simple thing at first. But if you find 'tis from the kidneys; That serious kidney troubles may follow; That dropsy or Bright's disease may, be the fatal end; You will be glad to know the following experience.

This is the statement of a Maysville citizen. Mrs. Della Lunsford, 328 E. Front St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I attributed kidney trouble to a strain. I had sharp, shooting pains through my kidneys and a dragging down feeling through my hips. I had dull headaches and dizzy spells and often if I had not caught hold of something for support, I would have fallen. I was in that condition for several years, up one week and in bed the next. I finally began to notice symptoms of dropsy and in a short time I was suffering from that trouble. My feet began to swell and my hands were at times the same way. At night I was restless and always felt tired. I read of a similar case being cured by Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a supply. Before long I was completely and permanently cured. Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life. I am glad to confirm my former endorsement of this remedy." Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't stir up a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Lunsford had. Foster-McBride Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SOMETHING NEW FROM CALIFORNIA
Booth's SARDINES
THE EMERGENCY MEAL—FOR FOUR PERSONS.
ONLY 20c A CAN.
M. C. RUSSELL CO.

DEERING BINDER
The smoothest and best twine on the market.
For Sale By
J. C. EVERETT & CO.

JOHN W. PORTER,
FUNERAL DIRECTOR.
17 East Second St., Maysville, Ky.
MAX MIDDLEMAN
TRANSFER CO.
Transfer and General Hauling. We make a specialty of large contracts. Office and barn 130 East Second street. Phones 145 and 228.
EDWIN MATTHEWS
DENTIST.
Suite 6, First National Bank Building, Maysville, Ky.
Local and Long (Office No. 555, Distance Phones) Residence No. 137.
ANNOUNCEMENTS.
FOR CONGRESS
We are authorized to announce Hon. W. J. Fields of Carter County as a candidate for reelection to Congress from the Ninth District, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on August 1st, 1914. He most respectfully solicits your support.
LEAVE.
Maysville, Ky.
Westward—
8:30 a. m., 8:47 a. m.,
8:15 p. m., daily.
8:30 a. m., 8:16 a. m.,
8:25 p. m., daily, local.
Eastward—
1:40 p. m., 8:18 p. m.,
9:47 p. m., daily.
9:26 a. m., 5:30 p. m.,
8 p. m., week-days.
W. W. WIKOFF, Agent.
Chesapeake & Ohio
Railway.
Schedule effective Nov. 30, 1913. Subject to change without notice.
TRAINS LEAVE MAYSVILLE, KY.

An A. D. S. Preparation for every ill. We guarantee satisfaction. Try
A. D. S. PEROXIDE CREAM.
JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist

G. M. WILLIAM
DENTIST.
First National Bank Building
Phones: office, 388
Residence 579-W

Fresh Meat
W. A. Wood & Bro.
Market Street, Maysville.
All kinds of Fresh Meats. Cash butchers' stock, hides and tallow.

WASHINGTON THEATRE
WILL OF N AGAI TO THE PUBLIC ON MONDAY NIGHT DAMAGED GOODS!
It is estimated that moths cost people of the United States $10,000 a year by damaging their summer clothes. But, cheer up, let us dry clean your last winter clothes and put them in one of these moth-proof bags.
We may not be the cheapest, but we are emphatically the best.
Ladies' and gents' suits dry clean, only $1.00. No charge for small pairs. These clothes are to be returned to us in the fall to be finished.
C. F. McNAMARA,
6½ Front St., Maysville, Ky.
P. S.—You have never worn a real Palm Beach till you have tried one of Ed. V. Price's made-to-your-measure $16 suits. A satisfied customer remarked that he would rather possess one of our suits than three of the "hand-down" kind, which are made for no one in particular.
McNAMARA, The Tailor.

BAD OPERATION AVOIDED
By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Mrs. Sowers' Own Statement.
Hodgdon, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.
If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Plenty of Bunch Beans
and Sugar Corn
For Seed.
Now is the Time to Plant
R. B. LOVEL,
THE LEADING GROCER.
Wholesale and Retail.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!
I am a woman.
I know a woman's trials.
I know her need of sympathy and help.
If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.
If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.
I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address,
MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box H, SOUTH BEND, IND.

Hupmobile
Don't take our word; ask the man who drives one. 1914 Models now on exhibit at KIRK BROS., MAYSVILLE, KY.

COLD DRINKS At Our Fountain
Limeade
Lemonade
Fruit Sundae
Peach Sundae
Fgg Phosphate
Melba Sundae
Fgg Lemonade
Nut Sundae
THE CHENOWETH DRUG CO., Incorporated.
Rexall Store
COR. SECOND AND SUTTON STREETS, MAYSVILLE, KY.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N. C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years, with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death. Medicines parched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken."

I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."

For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

Get a bottle of Cardui to-day.
Write to: Chattanooga Medicine Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," in plain wrapper. N. C. 138

If a young man naturally is worthless and inefficient the chances are that he finally will enlist in the regular army.

BLESSED WITH LARGE FAMILY

Mrs. Emma Watson Was Truly Grandmother of Seventy-Five Children.

Mrs. Emma Watson, who passed away at the family home in the Eden (Ohio) church neighborhood, Sunday morning, enjoyed the distinction of being blessed with a family of seventy-five grandchildren. She was the wife of Sady Watson, and they are parents of a family of eleven children, all of whom are living. Mrs. Watson reached the age of 68 years and was a lady generally known and loved by all who enjoyed her acquaintance.

MUSSELS BEING HEAPED

Along Shore To Await Shipment To Factories.

Manchester, Ohio.—Mussel shell diggers along the Ohio river are getting in some good work during the low water season and thousands of tons of shells are being fished out of the water and piled in great heaps along the shore, then are dumped into barges and delivered to the various towns where the factories are located. Manager Henderson, of the local factory, is spending much time along the river and has purchased several hundred tons of shells, paratory to a long run of the factory which are being put in the yard per this fall, winter and next spring. At the present time the factory is running four days a week.

THE CINCINNATI WEEKLY ENQUIRER

America's Greatest Weekly—Published Every Thursday—Subscription Price $1.00 Per Year.

WHAT THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER IS

The Weekly Enquirer is today one of the best dollar-a-year Weekly Agricultural Newspapers published. Its field is National, and it reaches every State and territory in the United States. It handles all the Leading Current News and Market Reports. It presents a complete summary of all the important events of the times. It has access to the Daily Enquirer's large staff of correspondents in the leading Capitals of the World. It conducts numerous departments for the exclusive use of its subscribers. Its Fiction Department is unequalled. In its field of Farm News it is supreme. YOU NEED THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER. There is valuable information in every issue for all the members of your family.

OUR SPECIAL OFFER TO CLUB RAISERS.

Fifty per cent. discount allowed to anyone sending us a club of THREE or MORE yearly subscribers at one time. Make up a club of THREE or more and remit us only 50 cents for each name.

Write today for a sample copy of our big Premium and "Bibbing List"—it's free. You might also send us the names of a few of your friends or neighbors whom you think would appreciate a real bargain offer.

We want active agents in every rural community. If you are well known it will pay to investigate. We allow a big commission on all new and renewal subscriptions.

Address—
THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER
Cincinnati, Ohio.

Audubon Water!

NATURE'S GREATEST HEALTH DRINK
For Sale By
GORDON SMOOT.
Orders filled promptly. Phone 3 and 51.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP

Lemuel Was Wrong — He Came Back Next Day

WASHINGTON.—Lemuel ambled into the marriage license office the other day wearing his workday clothes.

"Does I get my license heah?" Lemuel wanted to know.

"You do," responded the clerk.

"Den," said Lemuel with dignity, "you kin make it out fo' me."

He unhesitatingly gave answers to the various form questions propounded to him. And when this was concluded he reached for the paper which he had signed.

"Not yet," said the clerk gently, "not yet. You must take the oath and pay the dollar."

"Take de oath?" said Lemuel.

"Man, what kind of oath is dat?"

"You must take oath that what you have stated is the truth."

"And den," said Lemuel in a pained voice, "after I take dat oath I gotta pay a dollar besides?"

"It is the law," said the marriage license clerk solemnly.

Lemuel turned toward the door.

"I reckon I'll wait till next year," he stated. "I didn't reckon when I cum to get married you white folks would make me do all de wo'k."

But Lemuel was wrong. He didn't wait until next year. He came next day. And at the outside door of the courthouse the voice of his future bride could be heard as she dragged him toward the office. And these were her soft sentiments:

"Now, you triffin' no-account, you all gimme dat dollah en' I'll pay fo' de license. . . And if you don't tak' dat oath right I'll bust you when I get outside sho' I live!"

So the reporter drifted into the marriage license office and saw Lemuel obediently take the oath—after his future spouse had elaborately laid down the dollar.

Here the reporter butted in.

"Do you believe in suffrage?" he asked.

"Lemuel's bride-to-be released her grip on his sleeve for a moment and he stood submissively at attention.

"How is dat, suh?" she wanted to know.

"Do you think that women should vote?"

"Deed, suh," she responded, "I think dey ought to do something with dese triffin' men what promises somethin' en den falls down on de job."

Gets Amusement Out of Being a "Doppelganger"

EVERY president seems fated to have somewhere in his neighborhood a "doppelganger," as the Germans call it; in English, a "double"—some one who resembles him so closely that he is continually being mistaken for him.

President Wilson's double is also in public life. He is Representative McKenzie of Illinois, and they look as much alike as twins—although Mr. McKenzie is said to look more alike than the president, according to the wit of the house press gallery, who is an Irishman, of course.

As Representative McKenzie was strolling through the lobby at a Washington hotel one evening at winter a stranger approached him.

"Pardon me, Mr. President," he said, with a frown of concern. "I know you are most democratic in your habits and the people admire you for it, but, sir, this is too great a risk for the ruler of the United States to take, you wandering about the city at night, alone and unattended by even a single guard. You owe it to the people to be more careful."

Mr. McKenzie bowed in acknowledgment, and laying his hand upon his shoulder in a friendly way, thanked him for his kind interest, and, promising to be more careful in future, passed on, leaving the stranger in an ecstatic trance.

"I didn't have the heart to tell the fellow the brutal truth and spoil his venings for the rest of the winter, at the lodge and the corner drug store and the table when there's company for dinner," remarked Mr. McKenzie with a smile later. "I never do with these strangers. It means so much to me to go home and tell and then re-tell again that glorious experience, living over again with each telling those blissful moments when the ident laid his hand on his shoulder."

"He's got a mighty poor imagination if by this time he isn't vividly recalling he said, 'Look here, Woodrow, etc.' and the president replied, 'All Jim, just as you say, etc.' But I think the recording angel will take of that 'n' fib."

Next Use a Net to Catch Train Robbers

THESE many a slip 'twixt shooting the train robber and getting the ward, and that's why Jim Yokum of Red Bluff, Cal., is going about these days with a rueful countenance on which the gloom is settled as thickly as the white powder on some of the artificial ladies we see nowadays.

Jim's a train hand of some sort. It may be he is an express messenger, or a conductor—or his real grade I know naught. All I know is what Francis John Dyer of Los Angeles and other Pacific coast points told your correspondent, and he said Jim is a train hand. At any rate, Jim saw two men crawl into the mail car of his train while it was stopping at Delta, Cal. Like a true moving picture.

Jim drew his shooting irons and began peppering the robbers. They returned the fire, but Jim's unerring aim brought one of the villains to the ground silent. Jim had killed him. The other fellow ran.

Now that was a fair day's work for a train hand, and Jim began to get it swelled up over it, and applied to the post office department for that thousand dollar reward which he understood to be standing for just such cases.

The post office department opened his letter, yawned, rubber stamped it, passed it on through several million miles of red tape and returned it to Jim with something like this:

"Sir: In reply to your esteemed favor of recent date we beg to advise that the reward which you claim is offered only in the case of mail train robbers arrested and convicted."

Jim was dumfounded. He had neither arrested nor convicted his robber. He had merely killed him.

And unless some member of Jim's congressional delegation gets through a special act for him, Jim will go unrewarded. He can't even collect the cost of the bullets he used.

The next time he sees a man robbing the mails he intends to throw a net over him and take him to Washington, to the postmaster general, in a box.

Shedding of Teeth Is a Most Interesting Subject

YOU are respectfully invited to consider the shedding of teeth. It is a most interesting subject of thought, in that it touches the memory-wire that connects with our own milk-teeths way back in the last century, when we were—Remember? There is a young gentleman out Cleveland park way who had two loose ones, in front, that wobbled, but would not shed. He was offered every inducement to have them pulled—ice cream and other res—but as every proposition had a very literal string to it, the young gentleman hung on to his teeth. And then hung on to him—as a door—on by one hinge.

The other day the young Provost, which plays nurse to small boys, told that little cousin Virginia, in a hammock on the porch, should swing at the young gentleman with such satisfying results that, the first thing big Man heard when he whizzed home was:

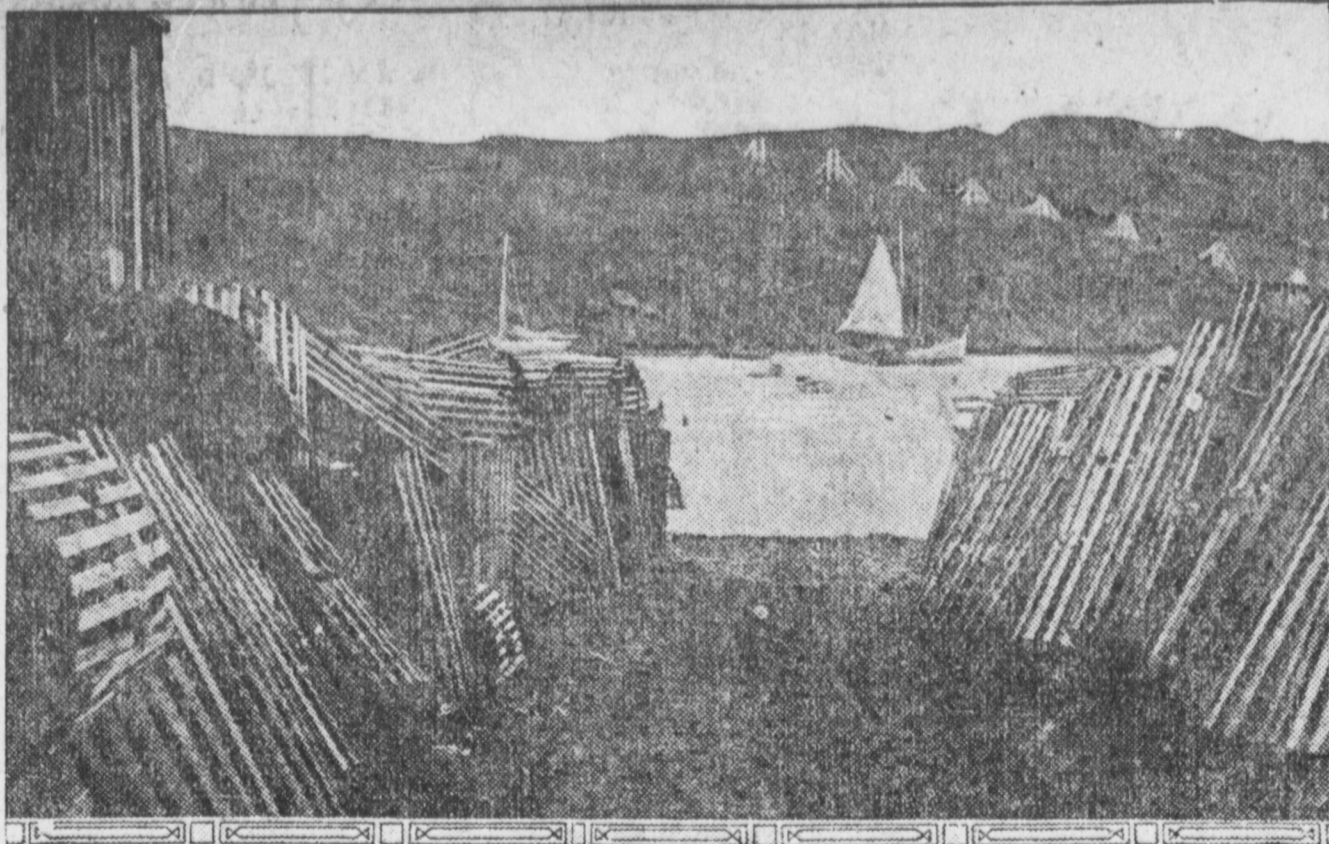

"It's out, papa! Virginia kicked it out!"

The household celebrated with due jubilation, and more enticing sugums were thrown out as to the advisability of having mamma pull out their tooth, which was—"so loose, darling, it couldn't possibly hurt!"—being considered the advantages of an ice cream party. Also he pried it backward and forward.

I rather have Virginia kick it out."

Virginia doubtless approved his decision and would have done her best, big man, wise to the fact that the most well-intentioned kick might at a tangent and hit a less desirable target—say, a small nose or a boyish fresh eyes—doubled the horsepower of his eloquence as to expected of a little man, and yanked the tooth out.

MONHEGAN ISLAND TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

This is one of the village streets on Monhegan Island, a rocky stretch ten miles off the coast of Maine, where next August will be celebrated the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of Capt. John Smith, the first white man to set foot on the island. Monhegan has a population of about one hundred, whose living is derived from lobster fishing and the entertainment of summer visitors and artists.

RIVER OF WONDERS

Ship Captains Tell of Strange Experiences on Amazon.

Pests Assail Travelers on 2,150-Mile Journey to Iquitos—Ravages of Vulture Bat and Fish That Are Dangerous.

Chicago.—The emergence of Colonel Roosevelt from the interior of Brazil directed public attention more than ever to a journey probably the most weird and picturesque in the world, says the New York World.

It is 2,150 miles from the mouth of the Amazon to Iquitos, where the government of Peru maintains a large dockyard, barracks, iron works, machine shops, etc., and an inland navy consisting of two gunboats.

If one wishes to travel from the Pacific side of Peru to Iquitos, only five hundred miles apart, he ascends the west coast in a steamer, crosses the Isthmus of Panama, embarks at Colon for New York and transship here for Iquitos up the Amazon.

Few have any idea of the tremendous volume and coloring of the Amazon current, its influence upon the Atlantic, the immense distance it carries nearly fresh water into the brine of the ocean, its serpentine windings, its overhanging vegetation, its rapids, its life, its pests, perils, pleasures and all sorts of strange sights. Some of the tributaries of the Amazon are mightier than the Mississippi.

Two Booth line skippers, Capt. O. L. Beck and Capt. J. W. Couch (the Booths relieve their master mariners by sending them on leave to England after a certain number of trips into the South American interior), gave a sort of duet in the narration of the wonders of the Amazon on board of their ships, their peculiar cargoes, their eligibility to fly the American flag if they chose, and their adventures on the river of rivers. They characterized Alexander P. Rogers' description of the country as faithful and sincere.

While they were talking in the cabin of the Dent's longshoremen were shoveling out of the holds 1,600 tons of Brazil nuts at the old Robert pier in Brooklyn. Only 2,600 tons of the nuts were imported during the year 1913. Captain Beck, who was just packing up to catch the Cunarder for Liverpool, denied that the mosquito was a pest or peril on the Amazon. He said that for about three days in the navigation of the river it was necessary to shut up the passengers and use the mosquito ports, but this was the only stretch in the long journey out and back for nine weeks in which there was any mosquito fighting.

"There is something worse than the mosquito," said Capt. Couch. "I refer to the vulture bat, which always attacks either your bald head or the soles of your feet. It always bites you in the tenderest spots and draws blood."

Capt. Couch did not say how the vulture bat was circumvented.

"Yes," said Capt. Beck, continuing the dialogue, "there's another pleasant little habit of the Amazon, the 'smell bug.' If you smell him once you never forget him. He's brown, less than an inch long and half dead when he comes aboard on feeble wing. I've seen them cover the deck seven inches deep, and we had to shovel them overboard."

Everybody took a fresh swallow of claret after this story and Capt. Couch turned to again.

"It's against the rules of the company for any man to go overboard for a swim in the Amazon. One of our men disobeyed this rule once, and was never seen after he dropped over the side. We lay at anchor at the time."

"It was probably a small fish that got him," remarked Capt. Beck. "A small fish in the Amazon, about six or seven inches long, attends school in thousands. They dart at a man under the surface and bite him in hundreds of places and he never rises."

"A 'bacu' got him, I think," rejoined Capt. Couch. "A bacu is a black fish, about six or seven feet long, with no teeth, but with rows of suckers in each long jaw. The bacu scoops men alive."

The talk turned to natural phenomena, and Capt. Beck said the difference between high and low water at Manaus was about 42 feet.

There is an old story about a crew that was dying of thirst when its ship anchored in the mouth of the Amazon and the skipper didn't know it, and another captain, anchored near by, belowered through his trumpet, "Let down your buckets; you're in the mouth of the Amazon."

"Is that story true?" Capt. Couch was asked.

"It is," he replied. "I learned at school that the Amazon carried fresh water seaward, and I put it to the test once. I was 167 miles from the mouth of the Amazon. I noticed that the water was discolored around the ship. I dipped some up and tested it in the hydrometer. That water dipped from the ocean was three-fourths fresh."

Several houses have collapsed in the neighborhood recently, and the funeral party became panic-stricken in the belief that they were about to be buried under tons of brick and plaster. Their terror was increased by a flow of gas which was liberated by the falling floor. The policeman and the barber called to the struggling men and women that the danger was over, and helped them to climb out.

When nearly all the mourners had been lifted from the cellar, Katie Siegal was found stretched upon the body of her mother in a faint. The girl was carried to the yard and revived, while the undertaker lifted the body back into the coffin.

YOUNGEST MEXICAN AT MEET

Master Manuel del Campo Most Youthful Attendee at Niagara Falls Peace Conference.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Canada.—The youngest member of the Mexican group of envoys and their secretaries sent here by Huerta as representatives

Part of Buchanan's Service Presented to President's Wife at White House.

Washington.—Another addition has been made to the White House collection of presidential ware in the form of a handsome Sevres dinner plate from a set which belonged to President Buchanan. The gift has just been received by Mrs. Wilson from James Buchanan Henry of Annapolis, Md., a nephew and ward of President Buchanan, who served as his private secretary during Mr. Buchanan's occupancy of the White House.

The plate has an interesting history. It belonged to an exquisite set of pink banded Sevres, each piece of which was elaborately decorated, which Mr. Buchanan purchased at the sale of household belongings of the French minister at Washington during the time Mr. Buchanan was serving as secretary of state under President Polk in 1845-49.

Mr. Buchanan prized the china highly and it was used by him in the White House and subsequently in his home at Wheatland, near Lancaster, Pa. Upon his death the china came into Mr. Henry's possession.

253 Marriage Licenses in One Day.

Chicago.—Two hundred and fifty-three marriage licenses were issued here on June 1, fourteen less than a year ago.

At a point about a mile south of town Thacker got out of the buggy to adjust the harness of the horse they were driving, and while doing so the stallion reared and struck him viciously with his front feet, and continued the attack by stamping upon the victim. Further attack was prevented by Tracey driving on with the rig, which in the end was badly demoralized.

The injured man was brought to town by a passing buggy. A force of eight men finally succeeded in capturing the animal and brought it to town.

The stallion had recently made a frenzied attack on the trainer who had undertaken to subdue him, as for two years it had been impossible to ride or drive the horse, which had practically become an outlaw.

Husband Spanks Wife.

Jamaica, N. Y.—"I disobeyed him and he did right to spank me," said Mrs. Louis Laparcone, twenty-one, who appeared in court to withdraw her charge of assault against her spouse.

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

This Dog Is a Regular Patron of a Trolley Line

GREAT BARRINGTON, MASS.—Druggist John Harvey's beagle hound, Gyp, five years old, has a passion for trolley car riding. All the regular conductors on the Berkshire line, running between Great Barrington and Canaan, Conn., are his friends. Hardly a day goes by that Gyp does not enjoy a trolley ride. At the hour when he knows a car is due he takes a position on Main street near one of the white posts where stops are made, and when a car stops he looks up to see if it is the conductor he knows, and if it is he boards the car. After the round trip he leaves the car, barking his thanks to the conductor for his ride.

One day after boarding a car he noticed that it was in charge of a strange conductor. When the new man demanded "ticket!" of a passenger in front of whom Gyp was standing, Gyp remarked "bow-wow!" which was his usual way of saluting his friend, the regular conductor.

"Hello! who pays your fare?" asked the conductor.

"Bow-wow," replied Gyp.

The conductor was on the point of putting him off the car when the motorman interposed:

"He's all right; his collar is chalked and he has a life pass on this road. Let him off at the corner of Church and Main in Great Barrington; there's where he belongs." And Gyp got his ride.

Quite often Gyp goes hunting alone. Does he walk to the hunting grounds? Not a bit of it. He boards a trolley car and rides out several miles into the country to his favorite piece of swale, where the rabbits are thickest. There he leaves the car and enters the swale to spend most of the day hunting.

Near by is a farmhouse, where he has made friends. There he goes when tired of the hunt and knocks on the door until admitted and a bowl of milk is set out for him. After lapping it up he plays for a while with the children and then hustles down to the trolley track and waits for the next car.

Gyp is an aristocrat among dogs and is one of the best known and liked in this section of the country.

Boys Break the Rules in Academy of Fine Arts

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—It happened in the Academy of the Fine Arts in this city. A gentleman came in accompanied by four lads ranging apparently from ten to fifteen years. They were laughing and chatting at a merry rate. They had come to "see the sights" and were being ushered in the section that holds the statuary.

"Ah, ha, boys! Here is a fine bust of Julius Caesar. What do you think of him?"

The tallest boy ran his fingers lightly over the head.

"He has a finely proportioned head; I like his forehead, but the jaw is strong and the mouth seems cruel."

"Let's have a look at him," said another of the boys, moving forward. He fingered the bust carefully. "Yes, cruel and tyrannical, I should say, judging from his face."

A woman among the other visitors in the academy stepped toward the group, after whispering indignantly: "See those boys putting their hands on those statues? I'll stop that."

She was about to do so when the boys and their companion turned away from the statue they had been examining. As they faced the other visitors all comments stopped. The boys were blind.

One of them, a bonny venturesome fellow, called: "Come here, Charles; you said you would like to know what Cupid was like; well, here he is—a nice, fat baby lying on his side with wings coming out his back. He's not much on clothes," he finished with a laugh.

Eagerly they gathered around Cupid, and then other pieces of statuary, discussing them with understanding and animation, their comments showing often startling comprehension of the things they "saw." They read the character of the faces they felt and saw points of beauty or excellence that those with eyesight often overlooked, and among all the guests they were the most appreciative.

City Flower Beds That Will Tease the Palate

CLEVELAND, O.—Gaily intoning, "Where ignorance is bliss 'twere folly to be wise," Theodore H. Wenz, secretary of the elections board bureau of registrars, has coaxed one of the finest market gardens in Cleveland into being in the belief that he was growing flowers. With whole-hearted enthusiasm he delved and dug, early and late, planting beet seeds for petunias, lettuce for cosmos, radishes for asters, lima beans for pansies and tomatoes for celosia plumosa.

The back to nature impulse hit Wenz last winter and he spent his evenings at his home, studying the culture of flowers. As soon as the frost was out of the ground he began operations. First he wrote Congressman William Gordon for literature and, well supplied with data, he began to delve into the subject.

With the first warm days of spring he ordered a consignment of flower seeds and displayed them to his fellow employees in the board of elections offices, and right there is where he made his tactical error. William Schner, recorder of naturalization papers, had not forgotten that Wenz had substituted two dozen glass eggs for a like number of the poachable commodity, belonging to him and he was not slow in emptying out the flower seeds and replacing them with those of vegetables.

Each day Wenz has issued bulletins on his "flower garden" and the other day he said:

"I tell you posy beds are the envy of the neighborhood. A funny thing happened last night though. I was showing a woman who lives next door the plants last night and asked her what she thought of my asters."

"She said: 'They look like radishes, and your petunias look like beets, the cosmos like lettuce and the pansies like beans.' Doesn't it beat all how ignorant some people are?"

Big Chief "Two Guns" Up in Air in "Eagle Canoe"

NEW YORK.—Chief Two Guns White Calf of the seeing New York party of Blackfoot Indians sat beside Ralph M. Brown in his Thomas flying boat the other morning and spun over the Palisades at Dobbs Ferry. It was Chief Two Guns' first air trip, but it came very near being his last.

As Mrs. Two Guns and the party were shading their eyes and watching the flying boat rise gracefully from the water and soar over the Palisades toward the happy hunting grounds Chief Eagle Calf, who is the interpreter for the party, told Agent Charles R. Griffin that he anticipated bad medicine for Chief Two Guns before the flying canoe came to earth.

He had just spoken the words, according to Griffin, when the flying boat ran into an air pocket, swerved to one side and then, taking an angle of 90 degrees, dived for the Hudson. Barely 100 feet over the water Pilot Brown got the boat under control and it took to the water like a duck and skimmed across the river to the party.

Chief Two Guns lost no time in getting to land and after gesticulating and uttering a series of "Hows" said in perfectly good English, "Hemp fine eagle canoe. Ugh oof! Me no 'frail!'" But he did not interpret his Indian grunts, and if grunts mean fear in Blackfoot he grunted louder than the exhaust from the engine when the eagle canoe took its downward course, according to Pilot Brown.

"He hung on tight," explained Mr. Brown, "and don't you forget it, he grunted."

Good Hunting Country.

Wild animals are not numerous in Sind, although occasional reports are heard of tigers, panthers, leopards, wolves and hyenas. The jackal is very common, while bears are sometimes seen in the hills. The gad or wild sheep, the ibex, the chinkers, the black buck and the hog deer are comparatively common, while the wild pig is very prevalent at times.

Permanent Reformation.

Biggs—"Hello, old man, how are you? Haven't seen you for a long time. How's your brother doing? Has he pulled himself up yet?" Miggs—"Do you know that my brother has given up smoking, drinking, gambling, and all bad habits, and has gone to a quiet little place in the country."

Biggs—"You don't say so! Where?" Miggs—"To the graveyard."

Henry C. Frick.

"Pope Innocent X," the most famous picture in Rome. The owner, Prince Alfonso Doria-Pamphili, has refused to consider the offer.

SUBDUE AN OUTLAW STALLION

Animal Goes Mad and Attacks its Owner, Injuring Him Severely by Stamping Upon Him.

Payette, Ida.—S. D. Thacker of Payette, who recently purchased an imported Percheron stallion, was attacked and seriously injured by the vicious animal. Thacker, accompanied by S. C. Tracey, was driving another horse to a single buggy and leading the stallion behind the rig.

At a point about a mile south of town Thacker got out of the buggy to adjust the harness of the horse they were driving, and while doing so the stallion reared and struck him viciously with his front feet, and continued the attack by stamping upon the victim. Further attack was prevented by Tracey driving on with the rig, which in the end was badly demoralized.

The injured man was brought to town by a passing buggy. A force of eight men finally succeeded in capturing the animal and brought it to town.

Master Manuel del Campo.

of Mexico at the "A. B. C." conference being held at the Clifton house, is happy little Manuel del Campo, the six-month-old young son of Martinez del Campo, an attaché of the delegation. That he is a defiant little Mexican is seen by the lovable pose of the little fellow when his photo was made.

The stallion had recently made a frenzied attack on the trainer who had undertaken to subdue him, as for two years it had been impossible to ride or drive the horse, which had practically become an outlaw.

Husband Spanks Wife.

Jamaica, N. Y.—"I disobeyed him and he did right to spank me," said Mrs. Louis Laparcone, twenty-one, who appeared in court to withdraw her charge of assault against her spouse.

The MAID of the FOREST

By RANDALL PARRISH
ILLUSTRATED BY D. J. LAVIN
COPYRIGHT A.C. MCCLURE & CO., 1915

SYNOPSIS.

Joseph Hayward, an ensign in the United States army, on his way to Fort Harnar, meets Simon Girty, a renegade of the British army, who has been connected with the capture of the French general, Hamilton. Hayward guides him to the fort. At General Harnar's headquarters Hayward meets Rene D'Auray, who professes to recognize him, although he has no recollection of ever having seen him before. Hayward volunteers to carry a message for Harnar to Sandusky, where Hamilton is stationed. The northwest Indian tribes are ready for war and are only held back by the refusal of the friendly Wyandots to join. The latter are demanding the return of Wa-pa-tee-tah, a religious teacher, whom they believe to be a prisoner. Hayward's mission is to assure the Wyandots that the man is not held by the soldiers. Rene asks Hayward to let her accompany him. She tells him that she is a quarter-blood Wyandot and a missionary among the Indians. She has been in search of her father. She insists that she has seen Hayward before, but in a British uniform. Hayward refuses her request and starts for the north accompanied by a scout named Brady and a private named Girty. They come on the trail of a war party and to escape from the Indians take shelter in a hut on an island. Hayward finds a murdered man in the hut. It proves to be Raoul D'Auray, a former French officer who is called by the Wyandots "white chief." Rene appears and Hayward is puzzled by her insistence that they have met before. Rene recognizes the murdered man as her father, who was known among the Indians as Wa-pa-tee-tah. Brady reports seeing a band of marauding Indians in the vicinity and with them Simon Girty. Brady's evidence convinces the girl that there is a British officer by the name of Hayward, who resembles the American. The girl finds escape from the island cut off. Reconnoitering around the cabin at night Hayward discovers a white man in a British uniform and leaves him for dead after a desperate fight. The Indians capture the cabin after a hard struggle in which Hayward is wounded. Rene saves Hayward from death at the hands of the savages and conceals him in the cellar of the cabin. They engage in a fierce fight which ends when the negro accidentally butts his brains out against the low roof of the cellar.

CHAPTER XV.—Continued.

I saw him now clearly, and he must have got his first fair glimpse of me, for he stared at my face in startled surprise that, for the moment, held him dumb. It was like looking at my own reflection in a glass—the eyes, the hair, the nose, the contour of the face, the massive figure, all alike the counterpart of my own. I would not have believed, except for the witness of my own eyes, that such similarity was possible. Even though fortified with sudden impression this was the man for whom mademoiselle had mistaken me, the actual resemblance was so startling, as to leave me voiceless. We would have passed for each other anywhere, and yet as I stared at him, meeting his eyes fairly, I perceived a difference, faint, elusive, yet noticeable enough—his skin showed marks of dissipation; there was a peculiar insolent sneer to his mouth, and he must be older than I by five years. My mind seemed to grip all this in a flash, before his voice broke the silence.

"Odds life, man! and what's this!" he roared. "Some play acting, or a dream? Never before did I know I was born a twin. Who are you?"

The look on his face, as if he half suspected he saw a ghost, made me smile.

"My name is Hayward—Joseph Hayward."

He gasped for breath, his eyes fairly protruding, as he stared at my face.

"What! Say that again!"

I had full control of myself now, rather enjoying his consternation.

"I am Joseph Hayward," I answered with grave deliberation. "An ensign in the United States army, and a native of Maryland."

"Well, I be hanged! Say; do you know that's my name also? Is this some shabby joke?"

There was a gleam of anger in his eyes, a threat. I leaned on my rifle, and looked him in the face.

"I was better prepared for this meeting than you," I said, "for I happen to know you are. It's an odd thing, our resemblance, and the similarity of names, but I was told about you some time ago."

"By whom?"

"Mademoiselle D'Auray."

"Who? I never met—oh, her!" with a quick laugh, "you mean the Wyandot missionary?"

"I mean the daughter of Captain D'Auray," I returned with some sternness. "The man the Indians call 'Wa-pa-tee-tah.' She mistook me for you."

"And was not very nice about it I imagine—the little vixen will scarce give me a word."

"Possibly with reason."

"She told you so? She might be in better business than advertising my delinquencies among enemies. The girl has just enough white blood in her to make her act the fool."

"We may differ about that. Anyway I advise you to hold your tongue. What I am interested in learning now is—who killed her father?"

He started back, bracing himself against the wall.

"Her father! D'Auray? Is he dead then?"

He was not acting; the surprise was real; the expression of his eyes convinced me.

"You had no connection with the murder?"

"If Good Lord, no! I know nothing, man—not even how I came to be here. I woke up just now, lying in this corner with my face to the wall, every bone in my body aching. When I finally managed to roll over, I got glimpse of you there at the entrance, and sang out. I don't even feel certain who I am, let alone what I may have been up to."

"But surely you recall something," I insisted.

"Well," puzzled, "not much. See here, I'm willing enough to tell you all I know. Let's sit down; my head spins around like a top."

CHAPTER XVI.

I Hold a Prisoner.

He dropped back against the wall, but much of my old strength had returned, and I remained standing, leaning on my rifle. The man continued to stare up at me as if half doubting his own eyesight.

"Well," I said at last, growing tired of his silence. "You have my story—or, at least, a good part of it—and now it would seem the proper time for me to hear yours. Once we understand each other we will know better how to proceed."

He pressed his hands against his head in an endeavor to think.

"I was in there, unconscious and alone?"

"No, not alone; there was a yellow-bellied negro with you—a French mongrel, if I know the breed. He's there yet—dead; and I want to know the story."

"Oh, ay! I begin to get the straight of this at last," and his face brightened. "Not that it is altogether clear, but you furnish a clue; perhaps if we put the ends together we may make a tale. A French negro, hey! 'T would likely be the Kaskaskia half-breed, a treacherous whiskered dog. But how ever did he come to be here? Ay! I have it! The fellow must have trailed me from the council at Sandusky, suspecting I sought D'Auray; there was hate between them."

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

"He had no quarrel with you, then?"

"No; I saw him whipped; he was like a snarling cur. Listen, and I'll tell all I know. I am not proud of my job, understand, but out here in the wilderness, we work under a double set of orders—one open and above board, the other secret. 'T is poor work for a soldier, but there's no help for it, except to resign, and then someone else would turn the trick. You know the game we play—our countries at peace, this land formally surrendered to us Americans, and yet there comes to us—to Hamilton—private instructions to retard settlement, and retain our military posts. Lord knows what the ministry means, what they hope to gain by delay; we are only

"Then 't is likely he killed the man."

"No doubt of it, if he really be killed. Listen to what I know; in truth, 't is not much other than rumor; D'Auray had the fellow lashed by Wyandot squaws for some dirty trick, and Piccad—that's his name—awoke vengeance. Saint Denis! That was a year ago, and Piccad has ever since been in his own country. 'T was the coming of war that brought him back. I thought I saw him at Sandusky as we held council there, but his presence was nothing to me."

WANT THE BEST TO KNOW WE HAVE

White Duck Knee Pants Suits

For $4.00 that's all the go in cities for evening wear. For boys who wear long trousers we have the best white duck trousers for $1.50 any one can sell for this price in all the world. We can tell you of our blue serge all day suit, real light weight Coats $3.50. They are fine for hot weather. Come in any time, look over our line Beach suits and everything for weather.

Geo. H. Frank & Co.
Maysville's Foremost Clothiers.

CHURCH NOTES.

Washington Presbyterian Church
Regular services Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered. Let all come.

Second M. E. Church South.
Preaching at 10:45
the pastor, Rev. J. W. Simpson.
Sunday School at 9:30. James Dawson, Supt.
Epworth League at 6:15.
J. W. SIMPSON, Pastor.

First M. E. Church South.
Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 a. m. The congregation will unite in services at the Central Presbyterian Church at night.
M. S. CLARK, Pastor.

St. Patrick Church.
summer schedule of services at this church is as follows:
Mass—8 a. m. ay School immediately follows vice.
d Mass—9 a. m. s, followed by benediction of Blessed Sacrament—3 p. m.
First Presbyterian Church.
Lord's Supper at 10:45 a. m. services at night.
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
ristian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m.
cordially invited to all services.
J. BARBOUR, Pastor.

Third Street M. E. Church.
blic worship with sermon by past at 10:45 a. m. No preaching at the congregation joining in the service.
School at 9:30 a. m.
League at 6:45 p. m. Month at this service.
e cordially invited. Plenty and a comfortable children in worship.
J. M. LUTHER, Pastor.

Presbyterian Church.
ol at 9:30 a. m. J. B. at 10:45 a. m. Sacrament supper. Union services at
Rev. John Barbour will Endeavor at 6:45 p. m. meeting Wednesday at 7:30 music. Everybody cordially in-

R. L. BENN Pastor.

First Baptist Church.
e Great Am's" is the subject morning sermon and "Rain at will be the topic for the 7:30 p. ay School begins promptly at
m. and each member should be present. Mr. Ben Greenlee intendent.
B. Y. P. U. meeting at 6:45 p. m.
s. Baldwin and Greenlee have standing the Baptist Assembly at etown and we should all be pre-hear these inspiring reports.
public is cordially invited to wor-with us. Good music, good fellow-nd a cool building.
H. B. WILHOYTE, Pastor.

Miss Carrie Leebman is the guest of Miss Irene Armstrong of Norwood, O.

Clerks and carriers in the Cincinnati postoffice handled on an average of 1,000,000 pieces of mail a day during June.

Miss Emma Nauman, accompanied by her friend, Miss Alma Pope of Hyde Park, returned home Friday from Cincinnati, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dr. I. F. Tunnison.

Col. Joseph Wood Evans of Houston, Texas, who has been on a pleasure trip to Europe for several weeks returned to Maysville yesterday and is now with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Evans for a few days' visit before returning to Houston. Joe is one of the leading hustlers of that thriving city.

GETS A HEALTHY INCREASE IN HER PENSION.

Mrs. G. N. Crawford of Lee street is the happy recipient of a letter from Senator Ollie James telling her that her pension will be increased from $12 to $20 per month. Mrs. Crawford's husband served the entire time of the war.

Our Colored Citizens.

Nat Thompson is in Chicago on business. He will be gone two weeks.

Bright Star Tent No. 61 will meet this afternoon at the usual hour. All members are urged to be present.
MRS. MAE WRIGHT,
Queen Mother.

BASEBALL RESULTS

GAMES TODAY.

Ohio State League.
Lexington at Maysville.
Portsmouth at Chillicothe.
Charleston at Huntington.
National League.
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Boston at Chicago.
New York at St. Louis.
American League.
Chicago at New York.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Washington.
Cleveland at Boston.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

Ohio State League.
Maysville, 8; Lexington, 3.
Charleston, 1; Huntington, 6.
Portsmouth, 2; Chillicothe, 8.
National League.
Boston, 6; Chicago, 11.
Philadelphia, 5; Pittsburgh, 2.
Brooklyn, 11; Cincinnati, 6.
New York, 9; St. Louis, 2.
American League.
Chicago, 1; Boston, 5.
Detroit, 8; Philadelphia, 8. Darkness.
First game—Cleveland, 9; New York, 2.
Second game—Cleveland, 0; New York, 1. Called in sixth; darkness.
St. Louis, 4; Washington, 8.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

| Ohio State League. | | | |
|--------------------|-----|------|-------|
| | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| Charleston | 3 | 1 | .750 |
| MAYSVILLE | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Portsmouth | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Huntington | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Lexington | 2 | 2 | .500 |
| Chillicothe | 1 | 3 | .250 |
| National League. | | | |
| | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| New York | 41 | 29 | .586 |
| Chicago | 42 | 33 | .560 |
| St. Louis | 40 | 36 | .526 |
| Philadelphia | 34 | 35 | .493 |
| Cincinnati | 36 | 38 | .486 |
| Brooklyn | 33 | 36 | .478 |
| Pittsburgh | 32 | 38 | .457 |
| Boston | 29 | 42 | .468 |
| American League. | | | |
| | Won | Lost | P. C. |
| Philadelphia | 44 | 31 | .587 |
| Detroit | 44 | 35 | .557 |
| Chicago | 41 | 34 | .547 |
| Washington | 41 | 35 | .539 |
| Boston | 40 | 38 | .513 |
| St. Louis | 37 | 41 | .474 |
| New York | 27 | 45 | .375 |
| Cleveland | 26 | 49 | .347 |

Uneeda Biscuit

Tempt the appetite, please the taste and nourish the body. Crisp, clean and fresh—5 cents in the moisture-proof package.

Baronet Biscuit

Round, thin, tender—with a delightful flavor—appropriate for luncheon, tea and dinner. 10 cents.

Zu Zu

Prince of appetizers. Makes daily trips from Ginger-Snap Land to waiting mouths everywhere. Say Zu Zu to the grocer man, 5 cents.

Buy biscuit baked by NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY
Always look for that name

FOR THE SECOND HALF OF THE OHIO STATE LEAGUE

July 10, 11, (12)
Portsmouth at Chillicothe.
Lexington at Maysville.
Charleston at Huntington.

July 13, 14, 15, 16.
Chillicothe at Maysville.
Huntington at Lexington.
Portsmouth at Charleston.

July 17, 18, (19)
Huntington at Portsmouth.
Chillicothe at Lexington.
Maysville at Charleston.

July 20, 21, 22.
Chillicothe at Charleston.
Lexington at Portsmouth.
Huntington at Maysville.

July 23, 24, 25, (26)
Portsmouth at Huntington.
Charleston at Maysville.
Lexington at Chillicothe.

July 27, 28, 29.
Maysville at Lexington.
Charleston at Portsmouth.
Huntington at Chillicothe.

July 30, 31, August 1, (2)
Charleston at Lexington.
Chillicothe at Portsmouth.
Maysville at Huntington.

August 3, 4, 5.
Huntington at Charleston.
Maysville at Chillicothe.
Portsmouth at Lexington.

August 6, 7, 8, (9)
Chillicothe at Huntington.
Lexington at Charleston.
Portsmouth at Maysville.

August 10, 11, 12.
Portsmouth at Huntington.
Lexington at Chillicothe.
Charleston at Maysville.

August 13, 14, 15, (16)
Maysville at Portsmouth.
Lexington at Huntington.
Charleston at Chillicothe.

August 17, 18, 19.
Huntington at Lexington.
Chillicothe at Maysville.
Portsmouth at Charleston.

August 20, 21, 22, (23)
Huntington at Charleston.
Maysville at Chillicothe.
Portsmouth at Lexington.

August 24, 25, 26.
Charleston at Lexington.
Maysville at Huntington.
Chillicothe at Portsmouth.

August 27, 28, 29, (30)
Chillicothe at Charleston.
Maysville at Lexington.
Huntington at Portsmouth.

August 31, September 1, 2, 3
Maysville at Charleston.
Lexington at Portsmouth.
Huntington at Chillicothe.

September 4, 5, (6)
Lexington at Charleston.
Portsmouth at Maysville.
Chillicothe at Huntington.

September 7, 8, 9
Chillicothe at Lexington.
Charleston at Portsmouth.
Huntington at Maysville.

September 10, 11, 12, (13)
Portsmouth at Chillicothe.
Charleston at Huntington.
Lexington at Maysville.

Sunday dates in parenthesis.
R. W. REAP, President.

FAIR AT EWING.

The Fleming County Fair is to be held at Ewing this year on August 20, 21 and 22. As Carlisle will have no fair the Nicholas County people will unite with the Fleming County people in their fair this year.

BUNCHED HITS

Won Game For Maysville Yesterday By the Score of 8 to 3.—Team Badly Crippled.

In their first game of the second season on the home grounds Maysville easily defeated Lexington yesterday by the score of 8 to 3.

Harvey Utrecht, who was secured from Paris, did the twirling for the Cubs and although ten hits were made off his delivery he kept them widely scattered.

Spallier Green was the slab artist of the Colts, but as Johnny Mae said, "All that he had was spit." The Cubs all did what has been lacking for some time—hit when hits meant runs.

Lexington made their first run in the fourth on a triple by Crouch and a single by Dawson.

Maysville came right back in the same inning and scored five runs. Chapman walked and stole second. Emery walked. Donovan doubled, scoring Chapman and sending Emery to third. Curtis doubled. Emery and Donovan scored. Ellis was safe when Kendall dropped his fly. Curtis going to third and Ellis to second when the ball was booted across the field. Montgomery tripled, scoring Curtis and Ellis. Dietrich and Sanford fanned. Utrecht was out, Guyn to McEvoy.

Neither side scored any more until the eighth when Lexington squeezed two more runs across the rubber. With one down Crouch and Dawson singled. Waife forced Dawson at second. Black batted for Guyn. White stole second. Black singled scoring Crouch and Waife. Konnick forced Black at second.

Maysville came back just a little stronger however and made three. Chapman singled and stole second. Emery flied to Black. Donovan singled scoring Chapman. Donovan going to second on the throw in to catch Chappie at the plate. Curtis flied to Crouch. Ellis hit to the Fatima sign for a triple, scoring Donovan. Dawson slammed the bat to Green, who let it go through him, Ellis scoring. Montgomery was out. Konnick to McEvoy.

The box score follows:

| LEXINGTON | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|-------------|----|---|----|----|----|---|
| Kendell, rf | 5 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 1 |
| Cain, cf | 5 | 0 | 4 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| McEvoy, lb | 5 | 0 | 0 | 12 | 2 | 0 |
| Crouch, lf | 3 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Dawson, c | 4 | 0 | 3 | 7 | 1 | 0 |
| White, 3b | 2 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 6 |
| Guyn, 2b | 3 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 0 |
| Konnick, ss | 4 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 4 | 0 |
| Green, p | 4 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 |
| Black, 2b | 1 | 0 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Totals | 36 | 3 | 10 | 24 | 13 | 1 |

| MAYSVILLE | AB | R | H | PO | A | E |
|----------------|----|---|----|----|---|---|
| Chapman, lb | 3 | 2 | 2 | 12 | 0 | 1 |
| Emery, ss | 3 | 1 | 0 | 4 | 2 | 0 |
| Donovan, cf | 4 | 2 | 2 | 3 | 0 | 0 |
| Curtis, 3b | 4 | 1 | 2 | 1 | 0 | 0 |
| Ellis, c | 4 | 2 | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 |
| Montgomery, lf | 4 | 0 | 2 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Dietrich, 2b | 3 | 0 | 0 | 4 | 4 | 0 |
| Sanford, rf | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Utrecht, p | 3 | 0 | 0 | 1 | 7 | 0 |
| Totals | 31 | 8 | 27 | 15 | 1 | 1 |

Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9—
Lexington 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 2 0—3
Maysville 0 0 0 5 0 0 0 3 x—8

Two Base Hits—Donovan, Curtis.
Three Base Hits—Crouch, Montgomery, Chapman, Ellis.

Sacrifice Hits—White 2.
Stolen Bases—Cain, McEvoy, White, Chapman 2.

Base on Balls—Off Green 2, off Utrecht 1.

Struck Out—By Green 5.
Left on Bases—Lexington 8, Maysville 1.

Double Plays—Konnick to McEvoy to Dawson.
First Base on Errors—Lexington 1, Maysville 1.

Time—Two hours.
Umpire—Arundel.

RIGHT OFF THE BAT.

McEvoy robbed Montgomery of a hit in the first inning by a sensational one-hand stop.

Chapman continues to play good ball on first. He is also hitting hard and timely and swiping a lot of bases.

Lexington is the attraction again in this afternoon. Toothman, the new south paw from West Virginia will be on the mound for the Burley Cubs.

Umpire Arundel made his first appearance here and his work yesterday was O. K. The Lexington bunch did a lot of howling on some close plays but Arundel was firm and soon had the frisky Colts as quiet as lambs.

The team was badly crippled yesterday. Mae was out of the game with a split finger. Ellis was behind the bat and Sanford took a place in the field. Dietrich was in the game, but he is suffering with a mighty sore wrist. Notwithstanding this, he played a nice game in the field in the fourth inning and made a sensational one-hand catch of Konnick's hard bouncer. All the Cubs also put a good game, especially big Charlie Ellis behind the bat. Charlie held everything that came his way and also held men on bases pretty well.

Froud day—when that first pair of "long pants" is worn!

Bring the youngster here—and preserve that "expanded chest" and self-conscious air for him to see, a year or two from now.

Brose

The Photographer in Your Town.

RIVER NEWS.

River 4.3 feet and falling.

WEATHER REPORT

GENERALLY FAIR TODAY AND TOMORROW; STILL WARM.

MAYSVILLE PRODUCE MARKET

Following are this morning's quotations on country produce, telephoned at 9 o'clock by the E. L. Manchester Produce Company:

| | |
|-----------------|----------|
| Eggs |17c |
| Butter |15c |
| Old Hens |13c |
| Spring chickens |20c |
| Old roosters |6c |
| Turkeys |12c |

How's That?
We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN,
Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.
Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.
Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

WANTED.

WANTED—Position by a boy 17 years old. Call phone 411-W.

COLORED man or woman under 50 wanted. No experience needed. $100 month. Write quick. Box A-409, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WANTED AGENTS—COLORED MAN OR WOMAN representative wanted in each locality. Part or full time. $50 to $500 a month. Every customer secured gives you a steady monthly income. Only one appointment in each locality; hurry and be the first to apply. Write Box 30, -409, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WANTED—MALE HELP—Hunting man or woman representative wanted in each locality. Part or full time. $50 to $500 a month. Every customer secured gives you a steady monthly income. Only one appointment in each locality; hurry and be the first to apply. Write Box 30, -409, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WILL MOVE—Woo Jun, proprietor of the Chinese laundry in Market street, on account of premises to be torn down will next Monday, July 13th, move to 149 E. Third street, adjoining the Donovan corner. All laundry called for and delivered. WOO JUN.

FOR SALE—Refrigerator. See Joe Marshall, Fire Company No. 1. 116t

WE WILL SELL for the next 2 weeks a lot of cut kindling for $1.00 per 2-horse wagon load. The Mason Lumber Company. 10-6t

FOR SALE—Good davenport and cooking stove. Apply to Mrs. Cora Gettes, 318 West Second street.

FOR SALE—Mare safe for saddle and harness. Cheap. H. C. Stone, Fern Leaf.

FOR SALE—Horse, cart and harness. Horse five years old. Apply to Gilbert Toile, 927 Forest Ave. 3p-1t

FOR RENT—Unfurnished room with bath. Call phone 494.

LOST.

LOST—Auto muffler, No. 16,926, on the Germantown pike. Finder please return to this office and oblige. 6-6t

LOST—A trunk key with a long, brown string tied to it. Return to Judith Williams, 117 Plaster avenue. 8-3t

LOST—Child's gold locket, between Hill House and Dinger's grocery. Please return to Mrs. Walter Rudy at the Hill House.

LOST—Leather sawl strap at Beechwood Park July Fourth. Return to Hunt's store and receive reward.

LOST—A gold medal, marked "F. O. Music," "F. Thomas." Finder leave at The Ledger office and receive reward.

LOST—A man's coat going to the C. & O. depot, color blue. Return to Myall & Calvert's livery table in West Second street.

LOST—Black face veil with red plush dots. Blew off street car near Huston avenue. Return to Raymond Dora at The Ledger office.

LOST—Gold watch chain buckle on West Second street. Reward if returned to 319 Limestone street.

FOUND.

FOUND—Black beaded bag, containing small sum of money, on Fourth St. Owner can have same by calling at this office. 10-6t

Saturday at Hoeflich's

All the newest goods at prices so attractive you cannot help from buying.

Specials For This Day

2½c buys Handkerchiefs for ladies and children worth 5c.

10c buys choice of a big lot of Crepes, Voiles, Lawns, etc., worth up to 19c a yard.

Six spools Clark's Thread 25c.

25c buys choice of fifty pieces wide, handsome ribbons worth up to 50c.

$1.98 buys choice of twenty-five handsome Silk Parasols, none worth less than $3.70. Some worth more. A rare bargain.

ROBERT L. HOEFLICH
211 and 213 MARKET STREET.

PASTIME TODAY

A good deal of bad management is excused on the ground that it was the Lord's will.

The Coolest Place in Town.

THE HOUSE OF QUALITY

HEAR THE

WARD KIDS

IN THOSE CATCHY SONGS

"THE FANGS OF JEALOUSY"

2-Part Eclair Drama

4 REELS OF GOOD PICTURES

Coming—Helen Gardner in

"THE PRINCESS OF BAGDAD"

Dr. S. F. Musselman of Cynthia has been elected State Veterinarian by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board at Louisville.

Quality Grocers.

Phone 230.

FLIES FEAR ELECTRIC FANS

About the only thing a fly or mosquito is afraid of is an electric fan.

While it is not known why these little pests fear the whirling blades, it is certain, however, that an Electric Fan will keep flies off the windows and show cases, and from the candy, vegetables and other foodstuff exposed for sale, even though the breeze is not allowed to play over the places or goods to be protected. Merchants find the Electric Fan invaluable for keeping flies out of their stores. If a fan is placed near the main entrance to the store, so that the air current flows toward the doorway, very few flies will enter.

The fly, that deadliest of household pests, likes stagnant air and hot, stuffy rooms. It takes no comfort and lingers not where Electric Fans constantly and vigorously allow clean, pure, cool air to abundantly circulate in every nook and corner.

Remember our installment feature.

Maysville Gas Co.

Get a Lot More Than Your Money's Worth

You always do in a Hart Schaffner & Marx suit, but right now there's still a bigger chance to profit. We've made these good clothes still a greater value for you by reducing the price on all Spring Goods.

Now is the time for you to buy a Straw Hat. Big reductions on them now.

And when considering buying shoes you must not forget that our Crossetts and Stetsons are the best in town.